THE JOURNEY

A ZEST FOR LIFE

I first met Stephaine during a photo shoot for our 2013 Christmas Appeal, where she smiled brightly at the camera and showed her kind spirit to all of us. She is a spirited, energetic, go-getting young woman. Stephaine has a younger brother and sister. She lives in one of our Shared Living Homes operated by The Good Samaritan Society (GSS) Programs for Persons with Developmental Disabilities (PPDD).

On the afternoon of February 14, I met with Stephaine and her mom Tammy, at the house that Stephaine shares with two other women. Because of Stephaine's diagnosis, she is unable to verbally speak but she uses sign language to communicate. Tammy shared her journey of love in caring for her daughter – we sat at the kitchen table, shared a cup of coffee, some laughs, and even a few tears.

Tammy had just finished putting together a photo album for Stephaine, full of family memories. She flipped through this album on the day I visited. She is ecstatic that she just became an aunt for the first time, and showed me pictures of her niece.

Stephaine was born 27 years ago, a healthy baby girl. An accident during birth left her with a small cut on the soft spot of her head. Tammy was reassured by her doctors that everything would be ok, and was sent home. About two weeks after arriving home Stephaine had her first seizure. Her cut had become infected, spreading into her blood stream and causing irreversible damage. In and out of hospitals, she would later be diagnosed as a spastic quad with cerebral palsy and scoliosis. As a result, Stephaine grew up with a lot of health challenges along the way. Although physically it was apparent, mentally she was like everyone else.

Stephaine was able to attend regular public school until she was 18. As she got older, it became increasingly frustrating for her because she was different and she couldn't speak. Tammy says, "I would often get a call from Stephaine's teacher who would tell me that my daughter had been sent down to the principal's office again for using inappropriate sign language. I would then have to go to the school to pick her up." Looking back, Tammy can't help but laugh at this situation.

About 13 years ago Tammy was diagnosed with multiple sclerosis (MS) and knew that she would no longer be able to care for her daughter at home. She began to look for a place where Stephaine would be able to live as independently as possible, be around peers, and enjoy the things that she loves to do. About 7 years ago, Stephaine moved into her new home. Tammy knew that this was a good fit for her daughter, as she would have good quality of life and would be able to grow as a person while at the same time getting the care that she needs.

At home, Stephaine helps with her laundry and enjoys being in the kitchen assisting the staff with meal preparation and baking. She enjoys painting, colouring, books, puzzles, computer games and typing, but the thing she enjoys most is listening to her iPod loaded with country and pop music. She is a huge Shania Twain fan! She attends a computer, exercise and an art class every week; she also volunteers at the General Hospital, and enjoys bowling with her friends. On the weekends Stephaine will often take in a movie or see a live theatre presentation at the Citadel.

Tammy says that she knows her daughter is happy, and this happiness is apparent in her huge smile. She is comforted by the fact that Stephaine is well cared for and loved by the staff at the home where she lives. Tammy says that she could never have given her daughter all the independence that she has today.

The Good Samaritan Society PPDD provides supportive living arrangements in homes throughout the Edmonton area. The homes are specially developed to accommodate individuals living with significant developmental and physical support requirements. They are accessible, barrier free and typically shared by two to five individuals.

All homes are staffed with community support workers and a team coordinator who work closely with family members or guardians to determine service goals and outcomes for the individual. We firmly believe in encouraging individuals to develop to their fullest potential and respect each person's individuality and beliefs.

Stephaine and her mom Tammy.

Our objective is to provide a service in which individuals experience enhanced quality of life in a safe environment that encourages opportunity and growth.

In each home, individuals participate in personal and household management routines to the best of their ability. They are encouraged to identify social and recreational activities that interest them and to develop relationships with others. Staff encourage and support individual choice and decision-making to promote independence. They utilize opportunities to participate in day programs, volunteer placement and vocational settings.

This year the proceeds from our 22nd annual Servus Spirit of Caring Golf Classic will help improve the quality of life of aging clients living in our Shared Living Homes by providing for adaptations and accessibility as needed. For more information on how you can help please visit our website at www.gss.org.

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT & CEO

The New Year has arrived and for many of us, it marks a time of making resolutions and setting goals. Here at The Good Samaritan Society (GSS), it is no different; we are starting work with our Board of Directors, embarking upon the renewal of our 5-Year Strategic Plan (2014-19).

In our 5-year plan, we will outline how we will achieve our strategic directions and goals, and how we will develop the measures to help us understand our progress. This plan will be complete by this spring, and as always I will share the results with you.

At GSS we remain committed to reaching out and connecting with you, and ensuring you have an understanding of the direction of the organization so that we, through your feedback, continue to meet the needs of the residents we serve.

It is one of my priorities to bring the Office of the President & CEO to the front lines in our facilities. I want to understand the needs of our sites, and needs of our residents. I assure you in updating our Strategic Plan that we will continue to focus on and invest in quality care and accommodations, while ensuring that we are an effective and efficient organization.

“ I continue to be inspired by the enthusiasm, hope and dedication of the many staff, volunteers, colleagues and vendors that I meet and talk with. ”

As an organization, we are looking to develop a shared sense of leadership – where those involved in this valued work have a shared vision and understanding of what we do.

By working to develop our Strategic Plan with the people who will be impacted, our plan will be understood, accepted and committed to by the people who are responsible to ensure that our plan is in action on a daily basis.

We will identify and invest in projects, and continue to work to align our budget in support of our quality of care and accommodation priorities.

By the time you read this article, we will have held a second Strategic Leadership Team meeting in January, designed to advance the Strategic Agenda. We will continue to share with you regular updates on our progress, and the work of the organization.

In closing, I continue to be inspired by the enthusiasm, hope and dedication of the many staff, volunteers, colleagues and vendors that I meet and talk with.

Through the many conversations I have had and emails I have received, I want to take this opportunity to thank all of our staff for sharing their valuable experiences and insights with me. I truly appreciate and honor their commitment and dedication to the work that they do.

Thank you for continuing to entrust the leadership of this great organization to me, and I ask humbly for your help and support as we travel together on a journey of growing in strength, excellence and creativity.

God Bless and Best Regards,

Shawn Terlson, President & CEO

GRANDPARENTS DAY CELEBRATIONS

In 1978, the first Sunday after Labour Day was declared Grandparents Day by the Government of Canada as a day to honour the grandparents in our lives, and an opportunity for grandparents and grandchildren to connect and to celebrate a special relationship. The Government saw this as an opportunity for generations to connect and for us to remember those pioneers who helped build our communities and activities we enjoy today.

This past fall, several facilities/ programs in Alberta and British Columbia commemorated Grandparents Day with special events to celebrate the day, raise awareness, and most importantly, honour many of our residents who are grandparents. In addition, some of the reasons behind developing The Good Samaritan Society's (GSS) Grandparents Day events were to profile the caring work and mission of GSS, build relationships in our communities and to raise funds for resident needs that would enhance their quality of life.

It was also a day for residents, families, staff, and volunteers to have fun! Every facility/program who took part discovered this was a wonderful way to build teams and relationships.

A total of six events were held across GSS and each one was a tremendous success with over $40,000 raised and more than 800 people attending across two sites in British Columbia and four in Alberta. Congratulations to everyone for a job well done!

Face painting was enjoyed by everyone at Good Samaritan Pembina Village, Evansburg!

GOOD SAMARITAN HERON GROVE, VERNON AN EVENING OF DESSERT DECADENCE

A delightfully decorated room with a chocolate fountain, candy bar, silent auction and delectable desserts greeted guests for an "Evening of Dessert Decadence" at Good Samaritan Heron Grove in Vernon, B.C. organized to celebrate Grandparents Day.

A very successful event organized by the site's Recreation and Volunteer Coordinator Ivana Pavlic with support from Chris Smith, Recreation Aide, the evening was sold out long in advance. It was so successful that next year's date (Sept. 6, 2014) was announced immediately so those interested would not be disappointed! Proceeds from the event supported Good Samaritan Heron Grove's "Raise the Roof" campaign, to cover the second floor patio so that activities can be organized for residents outdoors during warm weather. Proceeds from ticket sales, sponsorships and the auction raised over $7,000 towards this project. Many staff, volunteers and sponsors contributed to make this event a success - thank you everyone!

FALL FAIR

In early October, staff and volunteers at Good Samaritan Village by the Station put on a colourful Fall Fair on what turned out to be a blustery and cool day in Penticton.

Despite the chilly weather, the area in and around Good Samaritan Village by the Station was converted into a wonderful meeting place, complete with all the sights and scents of a fall harvest. Very bountiful tables full of baking, homemade jam, corn on the cob, caramel apples, pies, cinnamon buns and barbecued burgers and hot dogs were hard to resist. The bake sale, craft sale and auction also made for great shopping while guests enjoyed the sounds of the very popular Dale Seaman and Hiway 97. Volunteers and staff worked diligently to set up tents and tables and create a beautiful harvest themed setting, all in support of a campaign to purchase new tubs for the cottages at the site. When all was said and done, over $7,400 was raised in support of this campaign! Special acknowledgement must be given to all the volunteers and prize donors. # WALK WITH ME

MICHELLE'S STORY

ASSISTED LIVING RESIDENT VILLAGE BY THE STATION IN PENTICTON, BC

I moved into the Village on April 1, 2010, April fools day!! I thought I was the fool, but as I settled in my new home, I realized I had been foolish not to do it sooner. I am surrounded by great people, great staff and I am at the Good Samaritan Village by the Station in Penticton, BC.

I was diagnosed with MS at age 28, just after the birth of my second daughter. Initially the changes were slow, but gradually my vision, my numbness and my reality changed. I am the only one in an extended family of over 350 cousins who has MS. Having this was not part of my plan. I have broad shoulders and I can handle it but it is tough sometimes.

I stopped driving at 35, quit my job at 38. I lost my husband in a motorcycle accident in 2001. I moved into the Village in 2010, at the age of 54.

So... keep smiling, hug often, and count your blessings.

What is my philosophy?

Love has much to do with how you live your life.

Be active, eat right, enjoy some chocolate & Baileys once in a while.

Spend time with family.

Get involved with your community.

Share your story.

Listen to music.

Laugh some.

Rest.

Get up the next day, do it all over again.

What keeps me engaged?

My attitude, attending programs that are meaningful and genuine, and healthy and positive relationships!!

I believe that volunteering is a big part of my success story. I became a volunteer for the MS Society in 1987 and I am still going strong.

I also volunteer at my home. I help the assisted living staff with the rolling of the cutlery, operate Sam's Convenience Store on Saturday afternoons, set up and clean chairs for daily programs. I help out wherever I'm needed.

Michelle McMunn

It makes me feel better when others seem better as well. Two of the programs I attend are Java Music Club and the Java Mentoring Program. I look forward to these programs because it's a win-win scenario. Everybody likes these programs and you leave feeling good, smiling and ready to face whatever comes your way.

In closing, if life was a bed of roses; you'd still have to put up with the pricks!

2013 SPIRITUALITY & WHOLENESS WORKSHOPS

Our workshop series kicked off in Lethbridge, Alberta on October 4 with Rev. George Handzo sharing his renowned expertise in bridging spirituality with palliative care.

Participants were enlightened with his knowledgeable, forward-thinking methods, and worked through developing care plans inclusive of the resident, staff and family. Rev. Handzo's experience in both Chaplaincy and Healthcare, science and psychology blended a superior language that physicians, staff and family members could all draw from. His presentation integrated a caring attitude with humility in his desire to equip others in their efforts to care for those near the end of life. It was a tremendous day of learning!

On October 11 and 25, Dr. Robert Neimeyer presented on "Grief and the Quest for Meaning: The Spiritual Arc of Tragic Loss" in Edmonton, Alberta and Kelowna, British Columbia.

Dr. Neimeyer, a professor at the University of Memphis, shared many stories of loss from an array of examples touching participants with their all too common threads. Through use of videos and presentation, he shared recent research, and provided participants with valuable tools to work through unwelcome transitions. A smooth and engaging speaker, Dr. Neimeyer has surely mastered the ability to engage an audience in a difficult area of discussion.

Participants left with much to think about, and the tools and ideas with which to implement progressive recovery and resilience.

LEADING WITH SOUL – KELOWNA – SEPTEMBER 22, 2014 & EDMONTON – OCTOBER 17, 2014

We live in extraordinary times, and leaders are being called to respond and lead in very difficult situations. They must find ways to inspire and energize people who are feeling burnt out, exhausted, cynical, and often frightened. The heart of leadership is in its leaders, and we have lost touch with one of our most precious gifts - the human spirit. This experiential session will explore what it means to "Lead with Soul" and will help participants to remember and rediscover the sources that nourish your own spirit so that you have the energy to nourish others. You will walk away with a deeper understanding of your own gifts, a clearer vision of what's possible for you as a leader, and an exercise that you can adapt to your work team or clients.

DR. JUDI NEAL, PH.D.

is an accomplished and inspirational speaker. Weaving stories and music with research and corporate experience, her keynotes provide a wonderful blend of what's possible with what's going on today in the business world. Most of her talks focus on ways to live spiritual values with greater meaning and purpose in our workplaces. She has addressed the United Nations and World Business Academy, and has led workshops around the world. Judi holds a Ph.D. in Organizational Behavior from Yale University.

GRIEF AND THE QUEST FOR MEANING: THE SPIRITUAL ARC OF TRAGIC LOSS – LETHBRIDGE – OCTOBER 3, 2014

Death and loss may not be optional in human life, but how we make meaning of them is. In this workshop, we'll explore a new way of doing grief work that helps the bereaved person to process and integrate the "event story" of the death, while also validating the "back story" of the love relationship with the deceased. Working with clinical videos, systematic presentation and recent research, you'll learn a variety of narrative procedures – such as restorative retelling, therapeutic journaling, and virtual dream stories – to help clients make sense of the unwelcome transition and identify the seeds of resilience.

DR. ROBERT A. NEIMEYER, PH.D.

is a Professor of Psychology, at the University of Memphis, where he also maintains an active clinical practice. Neimeyer has published 25 books, including Grief and Bereavement in Contemporary Society: Bridging

Research and Practice, and serves as Editor of the journal Death Studies. The author of nearly 400 articles and book chapters, he is currently working to advance a more adequate theory of grieving as a meaning-making process, both in his published work and through his frequent professional workshops for national and international audiences.

CELEBRATING ADVENT 2013

AT THE GOOD SAMARITAN SOCIETY

As a faith-based organization, we are committed to supporting spiritual wellness throughout The Society. In order to enhance the faith and spiritual journey of our staff and volunteers, we celebrated the 2013 Advent season using an Advent wreath and online Advent calendar.

The calendar was created along the traditional lines of the Advent season pulling together a variety of symbols to signify the week's theme leading up to Christmas. The department of Mission Effectiveness worked to capture the scriptural lessons and teachings of Advent while adding content, such as videos and quotes that would inspire staff and volunteers to take time for reflection and spiritual involvement. We endeavoured to include an element of fun.

The Advent calendar was designed with a colourful layout to draw attention to the symbols and day of the season. The calendar was posted on the intranet, and all staff were encouraged to view the day and respond with an entry to our contest when they saw a gift symbol. We called this our Chocolate Advent Contest.

Each week had one of the specific Advent themes of Hope, Love, Joy, Peace. Each theme had a special emphasis posted each day. The video clips were especially popular. Some of the video clips were of staff emphasizing the life-giving nature of their work with The Good Samaritan Society.

A symbolic reminder of Advent occurred each morning and evening at The Good Samaritan Society corporate office in Edmonton, where staff, volunteers and guests entering and leaving the building were greeted with a lit Advent wreath.

The use of the church season of Advent served to strengthen the connection to our mission "...to extend Christian hospitality..."; while inviting spiritual growth among our staff. We were reminded that we are called to serve others beyond ourselves with the gifts we have been given by God.

Marilyn Pantzer, Facility Administrative Assistant at Good Samaritan Hillside Village in Salmon Arm, winner of Chocolate Advent Contest for the third week.

PASTORAL CARE VISITOR TRAINING WORKSHOPS CONTINUE TO GROW

With the growing needs of an aging population, the local pastor or priest is not always able to connect personally in order to offer support and spiritual care. Thus, there is a need for a trained group of laity to help fulfill this ministry.

In addition, some people feel called to take on a more active ministry role caring for older people in a complex or long-term care facility. Here they will have the support of the Chaplain who offers supervision and guidance on a continuing basis. As well, it is a great opportunity for spiritual growth.

The Good Samaritan Society is committed to offering Pastoral Care Visitor Training workshops in various locations throughout Alberta and British Columbia in communities where we have facilities. The workshops are intended to give attendees competencies and skills needed to become pastoral care visitors for their church community or to become registered volunteers with the local Good Samaritan site.

The Good Samaritan Society, in partnership with St. John Lutheran Church in Golden Spike, Alberta held a training weekend November 9-10, 2013. Pastor Kevin Powell was instrumental in paving the way for a very successful event. Eight people attended the workshop and received certificates at the completion of the course. Topics included Introduction to Pastoral Care, Theology of Pastoral Care, Pastoral Care With Older People, Pastoral Care: Loss and Grief, Pastoral Care: Visiting the Dying. Not only did St. John Lutheran offer their church as the venue for the training, but the women generously provided refreshments and a sumptuous lunch.

Karen Triomphe, Chaplain in Stony Plain and Spruce Grove stated, "It was a delight to work with people from the community who share an interest in learning how to visit the elderly. All participants expressed thanks for such a moving, relevant workshop where their newly acquired skills were put to work in role play exercises with each other."

Good Samaritan Hillside Village in Salmon Arm hosted their 2nd Pastoral Care Visitor Training Workshop on January 10-11, 2014. Eleven lay people and two pastors from various denominational backgrounds attended.

The Good Samaritan Society's Board Chair, Norman Thompson, attended the workshop. He stated:

"I enjoyed the Pastoral Care Visitor Training session and learned many facets about visitation for our volunteers and for myself. One of the important lessons was understanding pastoral care and understanding the effects on the residents. Rev. Dale Olsen gave us his definition of Pastoral Care: Informed by religious and spiritual resources, Pastoral Care offers a compassionate and hospitable presence in order to soften suffering in persons, thus contributing to their holistic health and well being. In the training we learned about having a compassionate presence and what this means. We also learned that pastoral care to those in grief means walking with them on their journey — as Jesus walks with you and me. I am glad that I attended this training and hope that our volunteers and employees have the opportunity to attend and be enriched."

As a community of learners, there was a deep sense of sharing, support, encouragement and growth. There were many moments of tears and laughter, while at the same time gaining new skills and a renewed sense of calling. Refreshment breaks encouraged relationship building and a time to integrate new learning.

With certificates in hand, some of the newly trained people will join the Pastoral Care Visitor Team at each respective site. With this in mind and future workshops being planned at other sites, the future of Pastoral-Spiritual Care looks bright.

DONATIONS

As a charity, The Good Samaritan Society depends on the support of our donors to help secure items not otherwise funded such as our beds and specialized equipment needed to care for our residents. The generosity of our donors help make this happen - thank you!
