7. Title: Upon delivery to the agreed location and acceptance of the Deliverables by the Good Samaritan (including off-loading, stacking, quality tests), all risks and title shall immediately transfer to the Good Samaritan.
8. Warranty: Contractor warrants that the Deliverables do not breach any law or standard, (a) supply of the Goods are in accordance with this Agreement and will not infringe the rights of any person (b) when ownership is stated to pass in this Agreement, full ownership of the Deliverables will pass to the Good Samaritan and no-one else has any rights in the Deliverables. (c) any documentation supplied with the Deliverables is adequate (in terms of both quantity and quality) to enable the Good Samaritan to utilise the Deliverables in the manner intended by the Good Samaritan. All Deliverables are warranted for twelve (12) months from the date of acceptance and/or the standard manufacturer's warranty for the Deliverables which ever one is longer. Additional warranty may be provided by Contractor as required. All rework are re-warranted from the re-work completion date.
9. Standard of Care: Contractor is expected to provide the Deliverables with reasonable skill, care and diligence and in accordance with all codes, laws and any applicable good industry practices and standards of suppliers of such Deliverables, and in accordance with this Agreement.
10. Defect: Upon notification of defect, Contractor shall promptly remedy the defect, re-perform or rectify all deficiencies immediately upon being notified of defect, and at no additional cost or expense to the Good Samaritan.
11. Equipment: Where applicable, Contractor shall provide and keep on worksite, all equipment necessary to provide the Deliverables as required by the Good Samaritan. Upon completion of Deliverables, the work site must be cleaned, be free from debris, and the site left in as clean a state as was found. All equipment required for the Work must be in optimum working condition and must be project inspected and certified by the relevant authority. All equipment, including motorised and non-motorised equipment must be cleaned inside and outside (e.g. free of leaks, staining, vegetation and soil) and be in good repair condition, prior to their arrival on the work sites. Cleaning requires pressure washing or steam cleaning and where required, may include sterilization (e.g. 1-2% bleach solution). A list of Equipment to be provided under this Agreement (if any), are listed under Schedule B.
12. Price: The rates and amounts payable under this Agreement are detailed on the attached Schedule B.
13. Payment: Contractor shall submit reporting, invoices and supporting documents (e.g. packing slips, time tickets, warranty, manuals, drawings etc.) as agreed between the parties, and in a format acceptable to the Good Samaritan. contractors, agents, vendors etc. as required under the law. Contractor will provide and maintain workers compensation insurance for the duration of the Work scope, inclusive of personal coverage for all personnel not automatically covered by the Workers' Compensation Act and Regulation. Prior to the commencement of Work and the release of the final payment, Contractor shall deliver to the Good Samaritan the clearance letters from the Worker's Compensation Board (WCB) Alberta and Worksafe British Columbia (Worksafe BC) showing that the Contractor is registered and in good standing with WCB.

16. Set-off: The Contractor agrees that the Good Samaritan may set off payments against any monies that may be owing to the Good Samaritan by Contractor with respect to this Agreement and/or any other related or unrelated agreement(s).

17. Change Order: Contractor may submit a written change order request to the Good Samaritan, where Contractor is concerned that a requested Deliverable is out of scope of the current Agreement. The Good Samaritan shall consider the request and acting reasonable, may accept or reject the change order request, providing feedback to Contractor. Contractor agree that prior to commencing any such work, the written change order document is approved by the Good Samaritan and issued to Contractor. Invoices for Deliverables completed without a proper authorised change order or amendment to the Agreement may not be paid by the Good Samaritan. The Good Samaritan may request a Change Order for any reason including, weather delays, change in applicable law, protest actions, Contractor caused delay, events of Force Majeure or other contingency matters. Any adjustment to the price and project schedule as a result of such change request, shall be mutually agreed by the parties, acting reasonably.

18. Termination:

- .1 In the event of a material breach of this Agreement, or upon either party becoming bankrupt or insolvent, goes into liquidation or ceases to carry on business, either party may promptly terminate this Agreement without owing any liability to the other party. Notwithstanding the forgoing, the Good Samaritan reserve the right to immediately modify or terminate this Agreement due to fraud, gross negligence, willful default, an act or omission of the Contractor contrary to this Agreement;
- .2 The Good Samaritan may terminate this Agreement for convenience at any time and without cause, upon giving thirty (30) days prior written notice to the Contractor. If the Good Samaritan terminates this Agreement for convenience, Contractor shall be paid for Services completed in accordance with this Agreement up to the effective date of termination, and where applicable, the actual reasonable demobilization costs incurred by the Contractor with respect to the termination. Contractor must provide receipts and other supporting document(s) to justify any such demobilization claim under this provision.

19. Force Majeure: Neither party shall be considered in breach of this Agreement to the extent that the performance of their respective obligations is prevented by an event of force majeure and that could not have been prevented by reasonable diligence, such as but not limited to, unusually severe weather, protest actions, earthquakes, fire, wind, explosion, acts of war or terrorism, loss or delay of or damage to long lead items in transit, builder's risk events, off-site strikes and other events that result in unsafe working conditions and or difficulty in accessing the work site. The party (the "Affected Party") prevented from carrying out its obligations hereunder shall give notice to the other Party of an event of Force Majeure upon it being foreseen by, or becoming known to, the Affected Party. Any force majeure event that occurs and its effect continue for a period of sixty (60) days, either the Good Samaritan or Contractor may give to the other a notice of termination (If the Good Samaritan is paying fees during Force Majeure, then Contractor should not have a termination right, he/she is being paid), which shall take effect thirty

(30) days after the giving of the notice. If, at the end of the thirty days period, the effect of the force majeure continues, the Agreement shall be deemed terminated.

20. Indemnity:

- .1 Contractor shall indemnify and hold harmless the Good Samaritan, their subsidiaries, employees and agents, against and from all third-party claims, demands, actions, or costs (including legal costs on a solicitor-client basis) to the extent arising from that party's breach of this Agreement.
- .2 Contractor shall indemnify and hold harmless the Good Samaritan, their subsidiaries, officers, employees, representatives, contractors, sub-contractors, vendors, suppliers, customers and agents in full, against and from any loss or damage to the real or personal property of the Good Samaritan, to the extent arising from the Contractor's breach of this Agreement or from negligence, other tortious act or willful misconduct of the Contractor, or those for whom it is legally responsible.
- .3 Nothing in this Agreement excludes or maybe construed to exclude or limit the liabilities of the parties with respect to strict liability offences, including death, personal injury or other activities caused by negligence, fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation, or exclude any other matter required by law not to be excluded.

21. Limitation of Liability: Notwithstanding any of the foregoing, the Good Samaritan's total liability under this Agreement is limited to this Agreement value, whether in contract, tort, strict liability or any other offences, including for negligence, breach of statutory duty, misrepresentation, restitution or other offences.

22. Insurance:

- .1 At its own expense and without limiting its liability under this Agreement, Contractor shall insure its operations, and maintain throughout the Term, and for a period of 12 months following the completion or termination of this Agreement:
  - (a) General and/or public liability insurance coverage for personal and bodily injury, property damage in the amount of $2,000,000.00 per occurrence;
  - (b) Comprehensive automobile coverage of $1,000,000.00 for bodily injury and property damage arising from the operation of all vehicles owned, operated or licensed, hired and non-owned vehicles;
  - (c) Errors and Omission or Professional Liability insurance of $1,000,000 per occurrence;
  - (d) Broad umbrella insurance of $1,000,000.00, above and beyond clauses 22.1(a) and 22.1(b) above, without gaps in limit; and
  - (e) Any other insurance coverage required by law in the jurisdiction in which Work under this Agreement is being performed.
- .2 Contractor shall provide the certificates for the above required insurance to the Good Samaritan, including the below endorsements:
  - (a) name the Good Samaritan as additional insured on the policy;

Contractor Name:

Contract Number:

- (b) make the above insurances as primary insurance with respect to any other insurance or self-insurance programs afforded to or maintained by or for the benefit of the Contractor;
- (c) an undertaking by the insurers that the policies are in full force and effect, and shall provide thirty (30) days' prior written notice to the Good Samaritan before cancellation and/or annulled of the policy; and
- (d) a waiver of subrogation of claims in favour of the Good Samaritan.

- .3 Contractor shall ensure that all its subcontractors obtain and maintain similar liability insurances sufficient to meet the requirements in clause 22.
- .4 If Contractor fails to provide the required coverage and supporting documents, the Good Samaritan may place the insurance coverage on the operations of the Contractor, paying the premium for the coverage and charging the same plus reasonable expenses to the Contractor.

23. Safety: During performance of the Deliverables, Contractor agrees to comply with all laws in effect at each Work jurisdiction, including strictly comply with all current and future Good Samaritan's health, safety and environmental requirements, rules and procedures for each work site, Occupational Health and Safety (OHS) requirements, medical test(s) when required, epidemic, pandemic and/or public welfare or health emergency declared by a Canadian governmental authority, and also comply with all Food Safety laws and requirements applicable to Alberta and British Columbia related to the Deliverables. Contractor agrees to flow through these requirements to all its contractors, sub-contractors, employees, trades and vendors that provide Deliverables on behalf of Contractor under this Agreement.

24. Code of Conduct: Contractor agrees that it, and any of its workers providing Deliverables under this Agreement, shall comply with the Good Samaritan's ethics and codes of conduct during performance of this Agreement.

25. Environment: Contractor agrees to follow the Good Samaritan's' specific environmental policies and procedures including, waste management, general environmental protection measures, emission control and other procedures that are applicable to the Deliverables, and to obey environmental laws and regulations that protect the water, land, air, biota and wildlife.

26. Non-Solicitation: During the term of this Agreement, the parties will not directly or indirectly solicit or induce or attempt to solicit any employees of each other to leave their employment, except where the employee seek the employment through the normal public employment process.

27. Confidential Information:

- .1 The parties agree to keep strictly confidential all information of each other and that of third parties, acquired as a result of their participation under this Agreement, and only use, copy or disclose such information as necessary for the performance of the Deliverables, upon written authorization of the other party and as required by law. Contractor shall maintain security standards, including control of access to data and other information, consistent with the highest standards of business practice in the industry.
- .2 No press release or other public announcement relating to this Agreement will be issued by the Contractor without the prior written authorization of the Good Samaritan.

Contractor Name:

Contract Number:

- .3 The parties agree that Confidential Information, Inventions, and non-solicitation provisions are reasonable, enforceable and independent of one another.
- .4 Confidential Information does not include information which is already available to the public through no act or omission on the part of Contractor or information which is required to be disclosed by a court of law, in which case, Contractor shall immediately notify the Good Samaritan of such request, providing the Good Samaritan reasonable opportunity to seek remedy prior to the release of the information.
- .5 Upon termination of this Agreement, Contractor shall return and/or destroy all Confidential Information relating to the Good Samaritan's business in their possession, custody or control. Contractor shall make no further use of such documents after the termination of this Agreement.
- .6 The Health Information Act (HIA) imposes obligations on the Good Samaritan, its employees and affiliates regarding the privacy and confidentiality of client records. In the course of carrying out this Agreement Contractor may have access to confidential client information. Contractor acknowledges that he is bound by all terms and conditions imposed in the Act.
- .7 The Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act (FOIP and FIPPA) imposes obligations on the Good Samaritan, its employees and affiliates regarding the privacy and confidentiality of client records and shall not disclose the terms, except for necessary disclosure as required by law. Contractor agree to provide timely notice to the Good Samaritan of any request for disclosure required due to FOIP and FIPPA, and cooperate in coordinating any required response.

28. Personal Information and Privacy Act (PIPA): Contractor is responsible for the collection, use and disclosure of personal information for its employees, sub-contractors, vendors, agents and/or third parties, providing Deliverables under this Agreement and must comply with all laws applicable to privacy in the applicable jurisdiction. Contractor declares that it has obtained written consent from such individuals prior to the use of their personal information.

29. Intellectual Property (IP): Each party shall retain ownership of the intellectual property provided in the performance of this Agreement. The Good Samaritan shall own and retain all rights to the results and all Inventions resulting from this Agreement. Contractor irrevocably assigns all rights, title and interest in such IP and Inventions to the Good Samaritan or their nominee without requiring any additional compensation to the Contract Price. Contractor shall sign all applications for, and assignments of, patents, trademarks, copyright or other interests therein required by the Good Samaritan and shall sign all other writings and perform all other necessary acts, as well as provide support to the Good Samaritan, with respect to IP or Inventions relating to this Agreement.

30. Non-Disclosure of Information: The parties may disclose each other's information to employees, subcontractors or agents who have a need to know for the purpose of performing the Services, provided that the party have confidentiality agreement with the agent or permitted subcontractor containing confidentiality provisions substantially similar to this Agreement.

- .1 Subject to clause 30, the parties' obligations do not apply to information or documents which:
  - (a) are or become publicly available through no act or omission of the parties;
  - (b) are independently developed without benefit of any of the parties' information; or

(c) are received by or from a third party without restriction and without a breach of an obligation of confidentiality.

- .2 The parties shall retain each other's information as confidential and shall make reasonable security arrangements against unauthorized access, use, disclosure, loss, destruction or alteration of received Information. The receiving party shall immediately advise the disclosing party of any unauthorized access, use, disclosure, loss or destruction of the party's information, and shall provide the receiving party with any assistance reasonably required to rectify such a situation.
- .3 The Contractor shall return or deliver Good Samaritan's information to the Good Samaritan upon completion or termination of this Contract, or upon request by the Good Samaritan.
- .4 The parties information may be disclosed to the extent required by law or court order, provided that the parties provides reasonable notice to each other prior to disclosure and/or the opportunity to seek to prevent or limit its disclosure.
- .5 All required disclosure with respect to this Agreement will be in accordance with the disclosure provisions of the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act of Alberta and the Personal Information Protection Act of British Columbia.

31. Consent: Contractor understands and agrees that the Confidential Information, Inventions, and Non-Solicitation provisions above are reasonable, enforceable and independent of one another, should any provision be found unenforceable by a court of law. Further, Contractor understands that a breach of any of these provisions may constitutes cause for termination of this Agreement and that such breach may cause irreparable harm which may be remedied by injunction, damages and/or any other legal redress the Good Samaritan may choose to pursue to repair, mitigate or eliminate the breach.

32. Assignment: Contractor agrees that it will not assign or delegate any of its obligations under this Agreement without the express prior written consent of the Good Samaritan, which may not be unreasonable withheld.

33. Severability and Modification: Each provision of this Agreement is severable from every other provision. If any provision contained in this Agreement is deemed invalid, illegal or unenforceable by a court of law, such provision shall be severed from this Agreement and made ineffective to the extent of invalidity, illegality or unenforceability in such jurisdiction and in such circumstances. The remaining provisions of this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect.

34. Waiver of Breach: Failure of either party to require the performance of any term or condition of this Agreement, shall not prevent a subsequent enforcement of any such term or any other term nor will it be deemed a continuing waiver of the breach or waiver of any other subsequent breach of any other term or condition under this Agreement.

35. Amendment: Any amendment or alteration to the terms and conditions of this Agreement must be in writing and executed by the authorized representative of the parties.

36. Audit: Contractor shall retain all documents relating to this Agreement for seven (7) years from the Agreement end date, and upon request, shall provide the documents to the Good Samaritan for inspection and audit. Contractor further agrees to provide support and assistance to the Good Samaritan during audit relating to the Deliverables provided under this Agreement. The Good Samaritan reserve all powers necessarily incidental to conducting an audit of these records including, without limitation, the right to have access to, inspect and take copies of Contractor's books and records in connection with this Agreement. Contractor shall require their sub-contractors, vendors and others providing work under this Agreement to provide similar obligations to the Good Samaritan.

- 37. Withholding Tax: Contractor agrees that, pursuant to the provisions of the Income Tax Act, Canada, the Good Samaritan is empowered to withhold an amount of fifteen (15%) percent of the price to be paid to the Contractor, if Contractor is a non- resident of Canada as defined in the said Act, unless Contractor provides the Good Samaritan with a letter from the CRA authorizing a waiver or reduction of the withholding amount. Where the withholding is applicable, this amount will be held on account with respect to any liability for taxes which may be owed to Canada.
- 38. Amicable Settlement: The parties shall use their best efforts to settle amicably any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of, or relating to this Agreement or the breach, termination or invalidity thereof. Where the parties wish to seek such an amicable settlement through conciliation, the conciliation shall take place in accordance with the standard conciliation rules then obtaining, or according to such other procedure as may be agreed between the parties. Unless, any such dispute, controversy or claim between the parties arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the breach, termination or invalidity thereof is settled amicably within thirty (30) days after receipt by one party of the other party's request for such amicable settlement, such dispute, controversy or claim shall be referred by either party to arbitration. The Arbitrator shall be mutually selected by the parties and process followed shall be in accordance with the Arbitration Act Alberta,, including its provisions on applicable law. The arbitral tribunal shall have no authority to award punitive damages. The parties shall be bound by any arbitration award rendered as a result of such arbitration as the final adjudication of any such controversy, claim or dispute.
- 39. Governing Law: This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the Province of Alberta.
- 40. Enure: This Agreement shall enure to the benefit of and is binding upon the successors and assigns of the parties to this Agreement.
- 41. Independent Contractor: Contractor is and shall remain an independent contractor from the Good Samaritan.
- 42. Time of Performance: Time is of the essence in this Agreement.
- 43. Order of Precedence: In the case of conflicts, discrepancies, errors or omissions, the documents and amendments to them shall take precedence and govern in the following order:
- (a) this Agreement;
  - (b) Schedule A – Scope of Work;
  - (c) Schedule B – Payment; and
  - (d) Amendments to them;
  - (e) RFP; and
  - (f) Proponent's Submission.
